

H.E.A.T. YOUTH ACTION BOARD

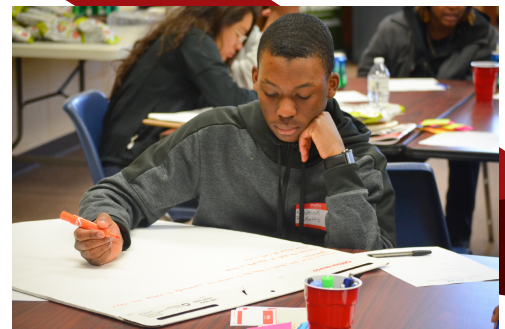

Currently H.E.A.T. YAB (Youth Action Board) is focused on serving the needs of redlined communities through community engagement, improving neighborhood safety and walkability, and increasing civic participation.

Lessons from the H.E.A.T. Report: INEQUITY AT A GLANCE

Over three years of intensive study, we uncovered massive opportunities in creating/sustaining health equity among a large section of our community. Historical property value discrimination (through redlining in the 1930's) has snowballed over time into our neighborhoods suffering from inadequate housing and a myriad of environmental health injustices.
